PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Frontend Developer transitioning into a full-time tech career, with production experience in React 18/19 and TypeScript from a fintech internship, and a self-driven full-stack health platform built end-to-end. Deploys and ships real, live products (Vercel, CI/CD via GitHub) — not just tutorial projects. Brings a background in organisational psychology that translates directly into accessible, human-centred interface design and strong cross-team communication. Relocating to Switzerland and actively seeking a Frontend Developer role or internship.
